Registration, Privacy, and Personalization

1. Registration

When you register to use the Del Mar Energy Service, we may ask you to provide us with certain identifying information ("Registration"). You agree to provide true, accurate, up-to-date and complete information about yourself. You also agree not to impersonate any natural or legal person, misrepresent information about any affiliation with another person, organization, or association, use false headlines, or otherwise conceal your identity from Del Mar Energy for any purpose.

2. Confidentiality of Registration Information

For your protection and the protection of our other customers and users of the website, we ask that you do not share your registration information (including, but not limited to, passwords, usernames, and aliases) with any other persons in order to facilitate their access or unauthorized use of the Del Mar Energy Services. According to the terms of Del Mar Energy's Security Guarantee, if you share this information with anyone, we will assume that their actions were authorized by you. You are solely responsible for all initiated transactions, published messages, statements made, as well as actions or omissions that occur within any Del Mar Energy Service as a result of the use of your Registration Information.

3. Personalization

Del Mar Energy may offer you the opportunity to personalize the Del Mar Energy Service or your online experience. Although certain personalization features may provide a more convenient way to access the data and functions that are most important to you, keep in mind that cookies and other similar identification methods are used to connect you to the computer or electronic device that you use.

4. Public Places and Shared Devices

If you access Del Mar Energy from a public location or otherwise use a shared computer or electronic device, some personalization features may disclose sensitive personal information about you to others. You are solely responsible for deciding whether a particular personalization feature is suitable for you, as well as for any consequences that may arise as a result of your decision.
